CLASS DESCRIPTION

Visual Arts Classes 2026

Clay/Pottery

Instructor: Tait Simonson

A camp favorite, Tait will again unleash creativity with hands on clay-making skills, using techniques such as hand-building, slab construction, & wheel-throwing to create unique projects.

Relief/Print-making

Instructor: Eric A. Johnson

A highly regarded artist will introduce students to traditional print-making process and to basic drawing and design techniques.

Acrylic Painting

Instructor: Brenda Baumer

Student begin leaning and enhancing skills while blending, glazing, layering and mixing paints to create abstract landscape paintings.

Fiber Arts

Instructor: Deb Carlson

With this seasoned art instructor, elementary students will learn about weaving with paper and then grow using yarn, found objects and beads. Jr. high and Highschool will jump right into the punch needle rug hooking.

Photography (grades 7-12)

Instructor: Sheri Peterson

With cell phones as cameras, students move from observation & exploration to intentional creation, leading to graphic design applications.

Camp Director: Erin Clementich

With degrees in Dance and Art Management, Erin's extensive experience in performing arts and her enthusiasm compliments this camp's impressive artists.
